Summary

Has more than 3 years of experience since grade 10 junior high school. I like to learn new things and like to do every job to the fullest. I can work in a team. If I experience problems such as errors, usually I look for solutions on Google or ask questions directly in the community on Facebook or Telegram. To support my abilities, I usually make several personal projects and I also like to share tutorials in the field of web programming on the youtube channel "KioraDev".
